CAREER HISTROY

Counselor (Previously Project Manager), Danish AIDS Foundation: 2005 – 2015

Founder and Chairman, ICC (Denmark): 2002 - 2015

International Department Leader, Kirke i Kultur Center (Denmark): 1993 – 2002

International Missions Leader, CCC (Singapore): 1985 – 2002

- My former work in the AIDS Foundation involved counselling the general public affected by STI/HIV, conducting anonymous HIV tests through a project called Checkpoint, coordinating monthly Educational Seminars, conducting weekly “group therapy” sessions and mobilizing, training and empowering volunteers.
- My current work duties in ICC are motivating and training leaders for appointed tasks and projects, fund raising, guiding and leading volunteers to achieve their goals and objectives in various departments and counselling individuals from all walks of life.

KEY COMPETENCIES AND SKILLS

- Professional Attributes

I am a goal orientated individual who is dedicated to tasks assigned and I possess a keen eye for details. I am both an individual worker and a great team player. I thrive in communication and in particular, cross cultural communication. I love motivating people to accomplish their goals while paying attention to individual competencies. In the past 30 years, I have had the privilege of successfully leading and completing humanitarian projects in Asia, Africa and now in Europe.

- Personal Attributes

I am married since 1989 to a fellow former Singaporean, Lillian Leow and we have two teenage sons born in Denmark. I speak 5 languages; English, Danish, Tamil, Malay and Hokkien. To date, I have travelled to 60 countries worldwide, mostly work related. I am loyal and faithful to a great cause. As I turned 50 in April 2015, I covet to offer my wealth of knowledge and experiences to tasks that can fully utilize all my potentials and competences while guarding the confidentiality and anonymity of clients.
